SAFETY AND INSTRUCTIONS

All VVX participants undertake to run the distance and itinerary planned in the best sporting spirit. They undertake to comply with the French Highway Code. Volunteers will be positioned in places that present a danger and competitors will have to obey all their orders and instructions, particularly when crossing roads open to traffic. The organiser shall not be liable in the event of non-compliance with the entirety of these instructions.

Medical supervision is provided by a doctor and an association of first aid personnel at first aid stations at the strategic points specified on a display in the race's village. Runners who request assistance from a doctor or first aid provider agree to submit to their authority and accept their decisions. All participants are required to report any problems encountered along the route. Under no circumstances may the organisation be held responsible for physical or psychological health problems.

Participants agree to respect the organisers' decisions during an emergency situation or in relation to the event's organisational arrangements. Organisers also reserve the right to modify routes or cancel races or hikes in the event of poor weather conditions (e.g. rain, fog, etc.), war, epidemic or for any other significant reason, even at the last minute.

To protect the health of competitors, their entourage, volunteers and the public as best as possible, the organiser will scrupulously comply with all injunctions and instructions imposed by the administrative authority concerning the health crisis caused by the COVID-19 virus. These measures are now specified in the "Guide of Health Recommendations for the organisation of races and the fight against the spread of the COVID-19 virus" issued by the French Athletics Federation on 21 July 2020. Reference should be made to this document. It is specified that the protection measures concerned may result in significant changes in the organisation of events, to the route and timetable of races and hikes, in the number of participants, the procedures to be followed and may even result in the cancellation of said event. Each participant undertakes to comply unreservedly with these current administrative measures and those which may subsequently be taken. No reimbursement may be requested from the organiser as a result.

It is strictly forbidden to litter (tubes containing gels, paper, organic waste, plastic packaging, etc.) on the route. Waste bins are available at each refreshment station and must be used. Race officials carry out random checks on the routes.

All participants must keep waste and packaging until they are able to dispose of them in the bins made available at the refreshment stations. The organisation encourages runners to use a waste pouch to transport their waste until the next refreshment station. They must be used to collect soiled paper in the event of an urgent need near the trails. It is essential to follow the paths as they are marked, without shortcutting. In fact, shortcutting leads to damaging erosion of the site.

Some sections of the proposed routes include private roads which are only accessible on the day of the event. Therefore, recording the routes taken for any purpose that is not strictly personal by any means is prohibited. Sharing these routes either on- or offline is also therefore forbidden.

The organisation may not be held responsible for any loss, theft or damage to equipment.

All runners must be equipped with the items described in the "Equipment" section.

The organisation reserves the right to introduce crossing times (cut-off times), to modify certain portions or all of the races if the weather conditions are likely to endanger the health or safety of the participants, and to stop, on medical advice, any runner presenting signs of physical impairment.

All runners formally declare they will not leave the starting line early, they will travel the full distance before crossing the finishing line and they will comply with the race rules.

BIBS

The bibs for the trails and hikes are collected at the Le Goulet site in the former Volvic factory. The bib collection days and times are as follows:

Thursday, 26th May 2021 from 11 am to 7 pm

Friday, 27th May 2021 from 2 am to 9:45 am

Bibs may be transferred for the 110 km DUO and TRIO upon presentation of a medical certificate proving a contraindication before 12th April 2022 in order to be able to keep the DUO or TRIO registrations.

Bibs are issued to named individuals for solo races. They cannot be exchanged or transferred, regardless of the reason given. Runners who do transfer their bibs are liable in the event their replacement suffers or causes an accident.

Each bib is handed over individually to each runner upon presentation of:

- an identity document with a photo,
- your race bag and all the mandatory equipment.

The bib must be placed on the chest or stomach and must be permanently and fully visible throughout the race. It must therefore always be placed on top of any clothing and cannot under any circumstances be attached to the bag or a leg.

REFRESHMENTS

The organisation provides solid and liquid refreshments along the entire route. The refreshment stations are stocked with drinks and food to be consumed on site. The organisation provides flat water or an energy drink to fill water bags and mandatory individual cups. The runner must ensure that he/she has, when leaving each refreshment station, the amount of drink and food necessary to reach the following refreshment point.

EQUIPMENT

Mandatory trail equipment according to FFA outdoor regulations:

- A headlamp with a spare battery for the runners of the Chaîne des Puys-Limagne Fault Trail Experience (110 km) and the Terra Volcana Trail Experience (80 km), solo and duo/trio (for the first relay runners).
- A solid or liquid energy product (energy bar or gel)
- A whistle
- The bib issued to each individual player worn in a visible manner and in its entirety
- The computer chip specific to each bib and runner
- The safety sheet containing the emergency telephone number and the safety rules to be followed
- A water supply of at least 0.5 litre
- A survival blanket to protect oneself or another competitor in the event of injury
- A charged mobile phone the for 80 km and 110 km trails.
- An eco-cup for refreshments, no cup will be provided.

Additional mandatory equipment may be required by the race director based on weather reports obtained from Météo France or for any other external factors.

This will include:

- a rain jacket, long-sleeve waterproof windbreaker
- long or knee-length leggings + long socks
- a cap or beanie or buff to cover your head

The list of mandatory additional equipment will be specified on the evening before the race starts in the reception area and on the dedicated social media pages.

To be allowed to start the race, each competitor undertakes to be in possession of and carry this mandatory safety equipment and to present it in its entirety when the bib is collected. Checks will be carried out at the starting line, along the route and randomly at the finishing line.

Tips:

- Check the weather on the days leading up to the race and adapt your equipment to suit the forecasts
- Relay runners: pack warm clothes to wear while waiting - always comply with the event instructions
- Each checkpoint must be passed through.

ACCOMPANYING PERSONS

Any assistance from accompanying persons or spectators is prohibited and will lead to the disqualification of the participant.

Spectators are permitted along all routes.

Dogs must be kept on leash for the safety of participants and are prohibited in refreshment areas.

TIMEKEEPING OF TRAILS, CHECKPOINTS AND CUT-OFF TIMES

Timekeeping of the trails will be provided by an electronic device supplied by SPORTIPS.

Each competitor must put on their bib and electronic chip provided by the organisers as indicated in the “bibs” section and without making any modifications to this equipment.

Electronic checkpoints will be set up along the route. Competitors who are not recorded at these checkpoints will be automatically disqualified.

Cut-off times are calculated to allow participants to reach the finishing line within the maximum time permitted whilst also accommodating any possible stops along the way (to refuel, etc.). These cut-off times are as follows:

Chaîne des Puys-Limagne Fault Trail Experience (110 km) and Terra Volcana Trail Experience (80 km):

- ▶ - 1st: 9:30 am at the top of the Puy de Dôme (departure of the 2nd runner for the trio relays) at km 29 for the 110 km trail and at 11:30 am for 80 km trail.
- ▶ 2nd: 4 pm at the refreshment station on the access road to the Puy de Dôme, at the automatic barrier (departure of the 3rd runner for trio relays), km 60, access on foot from the car park of the Panoramic view of the Dômes in the direction of the Puy de Dôme.
- ▶ - 3rd: 7 pm at the refreshment stations at the Espinasse quarry at km 88 for the 110 km trail and 6 pm at km 58.5 for the 80 km trail.
- ▶ - 4th: 9 pm at the Facemenier village refreshment station at km 99 for the 110 km trail and 8 pm at km 70 for 80 km trail.

In order to be allowed to continue the race, runners must leave the checkpoint before the cut-off time. The organisation reserves the right to remove from the race any competitor who is clearly not able to complete the race. The individuals taken out of the race will be repatriated by the volunteer teams to the event's village.

Any runner who is taken out of the race and who wants to continue on his/her route will only be able to do so after returning his/her bib, under his/her own responsibility and completely autonomously, with the understanding that the race sweepers (serre-files) invalidate the bib number.

Runners must communicate any decision to forfeit the race to the organisation, which (except for apparent medical reasons) is possible at checkpoints only.

For the Ultra Trail Chaîne des Puys-Limagne Fault Experience relay races, all relay runners must have left by the cut-off time. However, if the expected relay runner has not yet arrived, he/she may finish his/her relay. The team will then be automatically ranked after the teams having complied with all cut-off times.

Relay Trail Details (subject to change):

Relay runners must travel to the relay areas by their own means. No transportation services will be put in place by the organisation to drive relay runners to the relay areas.

Runners for the first leg of the relay will then be able to travel back down to the station by train throughout the day. If he/she wishes, the third relay runner can also accompany his/her teammates to the top of Puy de Dôme by train and return with the first relay runner. He/she must indicate so when the bibs are collected.

To facilitate the organisation of the runners, the start of the third relay is planned at the Puy de Dôme train station car park.

FORFEITING

If a runner wishes to forfeit during the race, he/she must inform the manager of the nearest checkpoint and turn in his/her bib. The checkpoint manager permanently invalidates the runner's bib by retrieving it. Shuttles positioned at the checkpoints will be available to pick up the runners who have forfeited the race.

If a runner or hiker is being treated by first aid service providers, either conventional or from the organisation, he or she is under their authority and must interrupt their race if they consider it necessary.

RACE PENALTIES – DISQUALIFICATION

By registering for one of the 6 trail races, the runners undertake:

- not to use a means of transportation
- to attend all checkpoints
- to wear the bib so that it is visible throughout the entire race
- to submit to an anti-doping test
- to assist all participants in difficulty
- to allow a doctor to examine him or her and to respect the doctor's decision

A runner's failure to comply with one of these rules leads to immediate disqualification without any possibility of appealing this penalty.

QUARTZ EVENT PROGRAMME

The Volvic Volcanic Experience Organisation has decided to implement the QUARTZ Event programme to protect your health and contribute to a drug-free sport.

It is not intended to, nor is it qualified to, replace national and international anti-doping rules but is intended to strengthen medical surveillance before, during and after the competition.

The QUARTZ Event programme is conducted in collaboration with the ITRA (International Trail Running Association), the Athletes For Transparency (AFT) association and the Ultra-Sports Science Foundation (USS).

It is managed by a Medical Committee consisting only of doctors. This Medical Committee may seek advice from experts of its choice and is in particular responsible for giving an opinion to race management on the medical status of the participants.

This Medical Commission may suggest to race management the dismissal of a participant for health reasons prior to the competition ("no start") or that the participant is disqualified after the competition for non-compliance with procedures.

The QUARTZ Event program is applicable to each participant, who therefore undertakes to:

1. Report the following medical information to the Medical Commission:
  - Any medical history and/or health condition, particularly those that may increase the risks during the competition.
  - Use of regular treatments or medicines or food supplements at least 30 days before the start of the competition.
  - Any request for or use of a substance or method subject to a Therapeutic Usage Exemption (TUE).

The declaration of medical information to the Medical Committee is made through the ITRA health space, to which each participant has access after creating a runner account free of charge on the ITRA website: <http://www.itra.run>. Declared medical information can only be accessed by the Medical Committee's doctors, designated experts and the medical team providing any treatment during the race.

2. Accept all urinary and/or blood and/or hair and/or saliva tests and related analyses within 30 days of the start of the competition and up to 15 days after the competition, it being understood that the costs incurred in taking these samples and the related analyses shall be borne directly by the Organisation.

3. Not to participate in the competition in the event of the use of:

Within 60 days prior to the start of the competition and during the competition

- Infusion of iron by intravenous means

Within 7 days prior to the start of the competition and during the competition

- Intravenous Infusion

- Inhalation of a gas

- Substance subject to a Therapeutic Usage Exemption (TUE) in accordance with the list of prohibited substances published annually by the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA)

- Glucocorticoids, regardless of the method of administration

- Synthetic thyroid hormones, except in the case of partial or total removal of thyroid or for hypothyroidism of medical origin.

Within 24 hours prior to the start of the competition and during the competition

- Beta-2 agonists, regardless of the method of administration

- Non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAID), regardless of the method of administration

The possible use of these different substances may be identified, notably, in the context of the tests carried out before and/or after the competition or any other means of investigation.

4. Agree to respond to any invitation from the Medical Committee on site or remotely (telephone or videoconferencing) so as to discuss the participant's aptitude for participation in the competition or his/her possible disqualification after the competition.
5. Send, in a legible format, any form regarding any anti-doping test performed within 30 days of the start of the competition and up to 15 days after the competition.

6. Accept the use, for research purposes only and strictly anonymously, of the participant's personal data. Each participant has the right to access, rectify and object concerning their data. The Medical Committee is the body the participant can turn to exercise this right.

Any unreasonable breach, refusal or transmission of inaccurate information in connection with the QUARTZ Event programme may result in the participant being taken out of the competition, prior to the start, or disqualification after the competition.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE RULES AND EVENT ETHICS

By registering, participants confirm that they are aware of these rules and agree to follow all provisions therein unreservedly. Registering for one of the event races or hikes implies full and complete acceptance (i.e. without reservation) by participants of these rules, the event ethics and any instructions provided by the organisation to the participants.

The deadline for online registration is 12th April 2022. After this date, any remaining places will be available for on-site registration only.

INSTRUCTIONS AND SAFETY ADVICE: IMPORTANT

All hikers must observe the scheduled hike departure time of 10:15 am for the Expérience Rando'Impluvium (with the choice at the 12 km point to walk either 16 km or 25 km). Failure to do so may result in hikers finding that course markers and refreshment stations have been removed from their route.

All VVX runners or hikers must observe the French Highway Code during road-based sections of the route. Volunteers will be positioned in places that present a danger and competitors will have to obey all their orders and instructions, particularly for crossing roads that are open to traffic. The organiser shall not be liable in the event of non-compliance with the entirety of these instructions.

Doctors and a first aid team will be on hand to provide medical assistance. Hikers that request assistance from a doctor or member of the rescue team agree to submit to their authority and accept their decisions. All participants are required to report any problems encountered along the route. Under no circumstances may the organisation be held responsible for physical or psychological health problems.

Participants agree to respect the organisers' decisions during an emergency situation or in relation to the event's organisational arrangements. Organisers also reserve the right to modify routes or cancel races or hikes in the event of poor weather conditions (e.g. rain, fog) or for any other significant reason, even at the last minute.

Participants agree to remain on marked routes, and to respect both the natural areas along those routes and the private property that has been opened to the public for the event. Similarly, participants are required to respect the environment and not drop litter such as packaging or plastic bottles.

Some sections of the proposed routes include private roads which are only accessible on the day of the event. Therefore, recording the routes taken for any purpose that is not strictly personal by any means is prohibited. Sharing these records either on- or offline is also therefore forbidden.

To protect the health of walkers, their entourage, volunteers and the public as best as possible, the organiser will scrupulously comply with all injunctions and instructions imposed by the administrative authority concerning the health crisis caused by the COVID-19 virus. These measures are now specified in the "Guide of Health Recommendations for the organisation of races and the fight against the spread of the COVID-19 virus" issued by the French Athletics Federation on 21 July 2020. Reference should be made to this document. It is specified that the protection measures concerned may result in significant changes in the organisation of events, to the route and timetable of hikes, in the number of participants, the procedures to be followed and may even result in the cancellation of said event. Each participant undertakes to comply unreservedly with these current administrative measures and those which may subsequently be taken. No reimbursement may be requested from the organiser as a result.

The organisation may not be held responsible for any loss, theft or damage to equipment.

Although you are not required to provide a medical certificate to take part in the hikes, the organisers would like to remind you that hiking is a highly challenging physical activity. The Food Tour part of the event meets French Hiking Federation regulations.

LOCATION

Parking is available especially at the Champleboux sports complex located on avenue de la Liberté, 63530 Volvic, along with the other locations planned by Volvic city council (rue du Chancelas, Z.A. de Champloup). The welcome point is only accessible on foot.

REGISTRATION

Registration for the Food Tour can only be made online, on the official event website www.volvic-vvx.com, using a secure card payment system. A confirmation email will be sent once registration has been approved.

INSTRUCTIONS AND SAFETY ADVICE: IMPORTANT

All hikers must be present at the planned start time, i.e. 10:30 am, or risk finding the route marker points removed and the eating points closed.

All VVX hikers must observe the Highway Code during road-based sections of the route. Volunteers will be positioned in places that present a danger and competitors will have to obey all their orders and instructions, particularly for crossing roads that are open to traffic. The organiser shall not be liable in the event of non-compliance with the entirety of these instructions.

Doctors and a first aid team will be on hand to provide medical assistance. Hikers that request assistance from a doctor or member of the rescue team agree to submit to their authority and accept their decisions. All participants are required to report any problems encountered along the route. Under no circumstances may the organisation be held responsible for physical or psychological health problems.

Participants agree to respect the organisers' decisions during an emergency situation or in relation to the event's organisational arrangements. Organisers also reserve the right to modify routes or cancel the tour in the event of poor weather conditions (e.g. rain or fog) or for any other significant reason, even at the last minute.

To protect the health of walkers, their entourage, volunteers and the public as best as possible, the organiser will scrupulously comply with all injunctions and instructions imposed by the administrative authority concerning the health crisis caused by the COVID-19 virus. These measures are now specified in the "Guide of Health Recommendations for the organisation of races and the fight against the spread of the COVID-19 virus" issued by the French Athletics Federation on 21th July 2020. Reference should be made to this document. It is specified that the protection measures concerned may result in significant changes in the organisation of events, to the route and timetable of hikes, in the number of participants, the procedures to be followed and may even result in the cancellation of said event. Each participant undertakes to comply unreservedly with these current administrative measures and those which may subsequently be taken. No reimbursement may be requested from the organiser as a result.

Participants agree to remain on marked routes, and to respect both the natural areas along those routes and the private property that has been opened to the public for the event. Similarly, participants are required to respect the environment and not drop litter such as packaging or plastic bottles.

Some sections of the proposed routes include private roads which are only accessible on the day of the event. Therefore, recording the routes taken, by any means, and for any purpose that is not strictly personal, is prohibited. As such, sharing these recordings on social networks, the internet or elsewhere is also forbidden.

The organisation may not be held responsible for any loss, theft or damage to equipment.

Although you are not required to provide a medical certificate to take part in the Food Tour, the organisers would like to remind you that hiking is a highly challenging physical activity. It is therefore highly recommended that anyone with heart or respiratory problems should seek medical advice before taking part in the event.

All participants must be equipped with appropriate hiking equipment. It is therefore strongly recommended that you ensure you have protection against the elements (e.g. sun, rain, cold, etc.).

The Food Tour is not a competition and the time taken to complete the hike will not be taken into consideration.

Participants aged under 16 must be accompanied by a parent or adult who will assume responsibility in the event of an accident or incident.

Dogs are welcome if they are kept on a lead.

CANCELLING REGISTRATION

Cancellation is only possible by registered letter.

Cancellation requests will only be considered in the following circumstances:

- the participant has an accident, develops a serious illness, or passes away
- the participant's partner, spouse or first-degree relative contracts a serious illness requiring hospitalisation or passes away before Friday, 23rd May 2022.

In the event that a participant has an accident or develops a serious illness, a doctor's certificate stating the reason that they cannot take part will be required. Any other reason for cancellation must be supported by a certificate issued by the relevant authority.

Terms and conditions for reimbursement: any refund requests must reach us by Friday 23rd May 2022 at the latest (date as per postmark) and must be accompanied by a doctor's certificate. Requests will be processed in the month following the event.

In the event of a cancellation request, entry fees will be refunded minus an administration fee of €5.

CANCELLATION OF THE FOOD TOUR

In the event of force majeure, bad weather, natural disaster, a ruling from an administrative or legal authority or any other circumstances which would compromise participants' safety, the organisers reserve the right to modify the route or cancel the hikes. In the case of cancellation due to epidemic, extreme weather or natural disaster, no refund will be made.

INSURANCE/LIABILITY

Liability insurance has been taken out by the organiser. Participants are responsible for taking out their own insurance. In addition, it is strongly recommended that hikers purchase individual accident insurance to cover their own personal risks. The organisation may not be held liable should a participant be told to discontinue the tour (by the organisation or medical team). Participation in the Food Tour is the entire responsibility of the participants and they must waive any recourse against the organisers in case of damages or consequences suffered during or after the event.

IMAGE RIGHTS

All participants in the VVX Food Tour expressly waive both their image rights during the event and all claims against the organiser and its official partners that may arise from the use of their image. Only the organisation may pass this image right on to any media via an accreditation or an appropriate licence.

Any communication about the event or use of images of the event must respect the name of the event and the registered trademarks and have the official agreement of the organisation.

DATA PROTECTION

The organisation reserves the right to share the list of participants and their contact information with its partners.

In accordance with the French Data Protection Act of 06/01/1978, participants have the right to access, rectify or remove their personal information from this list by making a request in writing.

ACCEPTANCE

By registering, participants confirm that they are aware of these rules and agree to follow all provisions therein unreservedly. Registering for the Food Tour implies full and complete acceptance (i.e. without reservation) by participants of these rules, the event ethics and any instructions provided by the organisation to the participants.

ARTICLE 4 – ALLOCATED POSITION

Unless otherwise mentioned when ordering and on the Ticket, there is no allocated position for events.

In accordance with the provisions of the French law no. 78-17 of 6 January 1978 on computing, data storage and freedom of information, the processing of your personal data has been registered with the French Data Protection Registrar (Commission Nationale de l'Informatique et des Libertés - CNIL) under submission number 1759026. You have the permanent right to access and correct any data held about you, pursuant to EU legislation and current domestic legal provisions. You simply need to submit a request by electronic mail (support@sportips.fr). When placing your order, you are required to disclose personal information about your identity and the identity of Participants. The information needed to ensure an order is processed by the Ticket Office is the Buyer's surname, first name and email address. This information may also be used by Sportips to contact you in the event of a problem processing your order. Other data might be collected at the Organiser's request, including if an Event should come to be postponed or cancelled. The Ticket Office collects this data on behalf of the Organiser and supplies it to the Organiser. The Organiser is consequently responsible for ensuring any data it accesses is stored and used properly. Acceptance of these General Terms and Conditions of Sale is deemed permission to disclose your personal data to the Event Organiser. The Organiser bears sole responsibility for managing the content sent to Participants.

ARTICLE 6 – PAYMENT

Confirmation of the order imposes an obligation on you to pay the price stated. A single payment method is permitted per order.

Payments by bank card

You can pay for your order using a Carte Bleue, Visa, EuroCard or MasterCard. Said payment is processed by our banking partner. The banking partner's contact details are available on the Website's "legal notices" page. Card payments may make use of the 3D Secure system which aims to identify the card holder in order to curb fraud. Once the transaction is confirmed by the bank, the order amount will be debited from your bank account. An order confirmation will be emailed to you on completion of the transaction. If a payment is not fully cleared by the bank after your Ticket or order has been issued, it will be rendered invalid and you will not be permitted to enter the Event. Online electronic payments are made on the Sportips website, made secure using appropriate encryption and authentication technologies.

ARTICLE 7 – ORDER CONFIRMATION

Once your order has been paid for, a confirmation message is displayed. An order confirmation email containing your Tickets is sent immediately. It is then your responsibility to check the Tickets are actually received. Please note some email providers might delay delivery of the Tickets. The coded Ticket is valid only for the location, session, date and time stated on the Ticket.

You must retain the Ticket throughout the duration of the Event.

We do not accept any responsibility for unauthorised use of the Ticket if it is stolen or lost.

No refund will be given if the Event is cancelled, or any other decision taken beyond the organisation's control.

ARTICLE 9 – TICKET ISSUE AND CONDITIONS FOR USE

Electronic Tickets, or a link from which they can be downloaded, are sent to the Buyer's electronic mail address after each order.

Characteristics

In accordance with the regulations, each Ticket includes the following wording, either in an obvious form or encoded:

- Organiser's identity;
- Event name;
- Name(s) of Activity(ies) chosen;
- Unique order identification number. The order identification number must be in an unaltered condition and legible. Damaged or illegible Tickets will be deemed invalid. Sportips declines any liability for any error or fault that might occur during ordering, downloading or printing a Ticket. No duplicates will be issued after the initial Ticket.
- Number of Adult and Child bookings per activity.

One Ticket may be used more than once for access to the Event. A holder of a Ticket that has already been used may not claim any refund. The Ticket is valid only for the location(s), date(s) and time(s) for which it is issued. Tickets must be kept until the end of the Event. The Ticket is unique, comprising firstly an identification number and secondly a QR Code. Reproducing and counterfeiting Tickets are not permitted. Organisers reserve the right to deny access to an Event site. No refund will be granted in such cases.

Ticket inspection

The Organiser is free to check Ticket validity at the entrance to the Event. The Organiser is under no obligation to check the Ticket holder's identity given that each Ticket has a unique and unpredictable identification number. The Participant must consequently ensure Tickets are kept confidential. Any Participant who presents a Ticket that has already been used may be refused entry to the Event.

Organisers are not obliged to check that Tickets are genuine.

Proof of identity

Organisers are also free to check Participants' identities. Organisers may request that other proof of identity is presented on entering the Event. The form of such proof of identity will be emailed to Participants with the order confirmation email and be indicated on the Ticket.

for the XGTV Great Volcanic Crossing

Experience

The XGTV Great Volcanic Crossing Experience® is one of the events proposed as part of the VVX® Volvic Volcanic Experience.

It is managed by a Race Committee whose decisions are final.

EVENT CHARACTERISTICS

1. The Great Volcanic Crossing Experience is a semi-autonomous sports challenge, which will take place from 25 to 27 May 2022.
2. This adventure is open to solo runners and duos of women, men or mixed teams.
3. This event will start on Wednesday 25 May 2022 at 10:00 am and the race closing time is 00:00 on Friday 27 May 2022, i.e. a maximum of 62 hours to meet this challenge and reach the finishing line.
4. An official ranking will be established according to the order of arrival of duos and solo runners within this period of 62 hours.

Duos are strictly inseparable. If one runner forfeits the race, the 2nd runner can continue the adventure as a solo competitor (however, the runner will be ranked after the last solo runner having left the starting line).

5. The route will bring competitors from the Lioran station in the Cantal department (15) to the Volvic (63) springs via the Plomb du Cantal, the Puy Mary, the Cézallier mountain range, the Sancy mountain range and the Chaîne des Puys – approximately 224 km with a climb of 8400 m in the heart of the Auvergne Volcanoes Regional Natural Park.

No markings are in place. The event involves following an itinerary using a roadbook and GPS routes (provided by the organisation).

In the event of a navigation error by a participant, the VVX Volvic Volcanic Experience organisation cannot be held liable for any damages incurred as a result (excluding highlighted routes given in article 14 of the “Event Characteristics” paragraph of these rules).

6. In order to maintain the quality of the event and ensure safety, the number of participants is capped at a total of 90 across all categories.

7. The organisation puts one medical station/cold refreshment station and three aid stations in place:

- Km 31.5 at the Col de Serre (medical and cold refreshment refuelling station) – Cut-off time = Wednesday 25 May 2022 at 7:00 pm
- Km 68.5 at Condat (aid station) – Cut-off time = Thursday 26 May 2022 at 4:00 am
- Km 105 at Pertuysat (aid station) – Cut-off time = Thursday 26 May 2022 at 7:00 pm
- Km 184 at the Maison du Parc in St Genès-Champanelle (aid station) – Cut-off time = Friday 27 May 2022 at 2:00 pm.

Each team manages its supplies and its breaks as it wishes.

At the medical/cold refreshment refuelling station (Col de Serre), competitors will find:

- Solid cold food
- Energy products...
- Cold and hot drinks
- Toilets
- Medical assistance (doctor)

On the 3 life bases, competitors will find:

- A hot meal
- The 5 PDO (Protected Designation of Origin) Cheeses from Auvergne
- Energy products...
- Cold and hot drinks
- Toilets / Showers (showers subject to limitations)
- Their spare bags with a change of clothes and running supplies
- Medical assistance (physiotherapists, doctor, etc.)

8. Assistance can only intervene in outdoor life bases. It is strictly prohibited at any other point of the race, at crossings of roads and villages, under penalty of immediate disqualification. However, it is possible for participants to obtain water or food when crossing villages as far as this action is not intentionally organized (for example calling a friend to agree on a point to provide food...). Yet, in case of food poisoning or any other health problem caused by one of these supplies that is beyond the control of the organization, the responsibility of the organization of the Volvic Volcanic Experience VVX cannot be engaged.

9. Participants may not be accompanied along the route (except along the kilometre that precedes or follows the aid stations) under penalty of immediate disqualification. Checks will be carried out along the route.

10. All participants must strictly comply with the Highway Code throughout the entire event. The organiser shall not be liable in the event of non-compliance with the entirety of these instructions.

11. Most of the areas crossed by marked paths are private properties. Removing your waste, staying on the marked paths, not disturbing wildlife, etc. are simple gestures to respect nature, inhabitants and other visitors.

12. To protect the health of competitors, their entourage, volunteers and the public as best as possible, the organiser will strictly comply with all injunctions and instructions imposed by the administrative authority concerning the health crisis caused by the COVID-19 virus.

These measures are now specified in the “Guide to health recommendations for the organisation of races and the fight against the spread of the COVID-19 virus” issued by the French Athletics Federation on 21 July 2020. Reference should be made to this document. It is specified that the protection measures in question may result in significant changes to the organisation of events, to the route and timetable of races, to the number of participants and to the procedures to be followed, and may even result in the cancellation of said event. Each participant undertakes to comply unreservedly with these current administrative measures and those which may subsequently be taken. No reimbursement may be requested from the organiser as a result.

13. Any runner declaring COVID symptoms before the race must refer to the organization by calling the race doctor (number at the end of the race regulations). Any runner having COVID symptoms within 15 days after the race will report it to the organization by phone at 0805383944 (no surcharge) or by email at info@sporttips.fr

14. XGTV race is ITRA certified and is a 6 point UTMB © qualifying race.

15. Two classifications will be established: a duo classification and a solo classification so that each finisher can recover his/her UTMB points.

16. The provided GPX track ensures route continuity. However, on the Roadbook, the highlighted track will be the imposed track. Certain passages (for example, through villages) will not be highlighted, which will allow runners to take the route of their choice between the two tracks (for example to find water or buy food ...). The two supports (GPX track and Roadbook) are therefore complementary.

Collection of the bib numbers, bag checking and race instructions: Tuesday, May 24, 2022 from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. on the Goulet site in Volvic. The bags will be checked (compulsory equipment) at 4.30 p.m., 6.30 p.m. or 8 p.m. (30 runners maximum per slot).

Important clarification regarding relief bags: they are not provided by the organisation, and there is a 10kg maximum per bag, with a full fastening mandatory (no open bags such as bin bags or supermarket bags).

BIBS

Each bib is handed over individually to each competitor upon presentation of a photographic identity document after having signed and dated the certificate of acceptance of these rules with the handwritten words “lu et approuvé”. If this condition is not fulfilled, the organisation will not allow the participant to take part in the race. The bib must be visible throughout the race and presented at the checkpoints along the route and at the stations.

In Volvic, the bib is the pass required to access the bus, treatment rooms, rest rooms, showers, bag drop-off or collection areas and, of course, the four stations.

GEOLOCATION AND CHECKS

A geolocation application will be enabled and a GPS beacon will be provided to each duo team or solo participant. This beacon allows the organisation to monitor the team's progress and its route, thus ensuring its safety on the route.

A penalty will be assigned to each solo participant/duo if they are deemed to be off the route. The race director will have full discretion regarding this penalty after verification on arrival.

Any absence of mandatory equipment will result in a penalty of one hour per absence.

It is imperative for each solo / duo to have at least 1 phone in charge for GPS tracking, in the race bag throughout the event. Also for solos, obligation to have a recharging battery.

Tracking information will be available on the Internet.

CUT-OFF TIMES

Cut-off times will be defined at the stations and/or any other location deemed necessary by the organisation for safety requirements. They are calculated to enable participants to reach the finishing line within the maximum time imposed of 62 hours

Any competitor pulled out of the race by the organisation who wants to continue the journey will do so under his/her full responsibility after returning his/her bib and GPS beacon.

FORFEITING AND REPATRIATION

The organisation will ensure the repatriation of runners (who forfeit the race or are pulled out at a cut-off time) from the stations, without making a commitment as to the time of repatriation. If a participant forfeits the race at any other point on the route, runners must make their own arrangements to reach the nearest aid station, save for some exceptions.

If a participant forfeits the race, the return of the relief bag to Volvic before the end of the event cannot be guaranteed.

If necessary, they will be responsible for alerting and coordinating public emergency services

In the event of an accident

Runners must use their first aid kit for initial first aid treatment.

In the event of an emergency or inability to move, they must alert the Race Doctor or the Race Director.

In the event of bad weather conditions, and for safety reasons, the Race Director reserves the right to change the route, change the cut-off times or, if necessary, stop the race or impose a stop-and-go at the aid stations. His/her decisions are final.

In case of any modification of the route, new maps (paper roadbook) will be provided in a life base with a less exposed fall-back route. So you must know how to read an IGN map (legend, contour lines, equidistance, distance estimation, etc.)

The organiser will take out liability insurance for the duration of the race. This liability insurance guarantees the monetary consequences of its liability, and that of its employees and participants.

The initial composition of the teams may be modified before 12 April 2021. Requests will be evaluated by the Race Committee, which will decide whether or not to accept the registration, and its decision is final.

Any cancellation of the registration of a whole team or solo participant must be submitted by e-mail or registered letter. Cancellation by telephone is not permitted.

Registration fee refunds are only possible under the following conditions:

Date of submitting request	Amount refunded, as a % of the registration fee (excluding supplementary fees)
From 1 January to 15 February 2022	60%
From 16 February to 12 April 2022	40%

Registration is in the name of the participant. A registration may not be transferred to another race or to another person for any reason whatsoever.

In the event that a runner has an accident or develops a serious illness, a doctor's certificate, signed and stamped by the doctor, stating the reason that they cannot take part in the race, will be required. Any other reason for cancellation must be supported by a signed and stamped certificate issued by the relevant authority.

DATA PROTECTION

The organisation reserves the right to share the list of participants and their contact information with its partners.

QUARTZ EVENT PROGRAMME

The Volvic Volcanic Experience Organisation has decided to implement the QUARTZ Event programme to protect your health and contribute to a drug-free sport. The QUARTZ Event programme is for all participants. It is not intended to nor is qualified to replace national and international anti-doping rules but is intended to strengthen medical surveillance before, during and after the competition. The QUARTZ Event programme is conducted in collaboration with the ITRA (International Trail Running Association), the Athletes For Transparency (AFT) association and the Ultra-Sports Science Foundation (USS). It is managed by a Medical Committee consisting only of doctors. This Medical Committee may seek advice from experts of its choice and is in particular responsible for giving an opinion to race management on the medical status of the participants. This Medical Committee may even recommend management remove a participant from the race for health reasons.

Each participant therefore undertakes to:

1. Report the following medical information to the Medical Committee:
  - Any history of medical issues and/or pathology, in particular those that may increase risks during a sport activity
  - Use of regular treatments or medicines or food supplements at least 30 days before the start of the competition
  - Any request for or use of a substance or method subject to a Therapeutic Usage Exemption (TUE)
2. Accept all urinary and/or blood and/or hair and/or saliva tests and related analyses within 30 days of the start of the competition and up to 15 days after the competition, it being understood that the costs incurred in taking these samples and the related analyses shall be borne directly by the Organisation.
3. Agree not to participate in the competition in the event of glucocorticoid usage, regardless of the mode of administration and therefore whether or not a TUE exists, within seven days of the start of the competition. The use of glucocorticoids may in particular be identified in the analyses carried out either from a direct dosage or in the case of an abnormally low cortisol level.
4. Agree to respond to any invitation from the Medical Committee on site or à remotely (telephone or videoconferencing) so as to discuss the participant's aptitude for participation in the competition.
5. Send any form regarding any anti-doping test performed within 30 days of the start of the competition and up to 15 days after the competition. Each form must be legible.
6. Accept the use, for research purposes only and strictly anonymously, of the participant's personal data. Each participant has the right to access, rectify and object to the processing of their data. The Medical Committee is the body the participant can turn to in order to exercise this right.

The declaration of medical information to the Medical Committee is made through the ITRA health space to which each participant has access after creating a runner account free of charge on the ITRA website: <http://www.itra.run>. Declared medical information can only be accessed by the Medical Committee's doctors, designated experts and the medical team providing any treatment during the race.

Any unreasonable breach, refusal or transmission of inaccurate information in connection with the QUARTZ Event programme may result in the participant being taken out of the competition or disqualification after the competition.

ACCEPTANCE OF THE RULES AND EVENT ETHICS

By registering, participants confirm that they are aware of these rules and agree à to follow all provisions therein unreservedly. Registering implies full and complete acceptance (i.e. without reservation) by participants of these rules, the event ethics and any instructions provided by the organisation to the participants.
